Introduction and Quick Tips

Welcome to the help guide for preparing a preproposal application for the Fiscal Year 2016 United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) Regional Conservation Partnership Program (RCPP).

This help guide includes step-by-steps with screen shots for submitting your application including an orientation and tab-by-tab guide for the data entry tool, uploading the project area map jpeg, and completing and uploading the fillable PDF for the nine narrative elements required in the Announcement of Program Funding.

Here are some quick tips to get you started:

- Prepare Before Starting the Tool: Work with your partners, including the relevant NRCS State Office, to gather all the necessary information before beginning the data entry tool. Devote some time on your calendar so you can complete the tool in one sitting to ensure the information you provide is consistent.
- Open Other Spreadsheets After Beginning: If you have other excel spreadsheets open, opening the RCPP Preproposal tool will close them. Wait to open any spreadsheets necessary to fill out the data until the tool is running.
- Write Executive Summary Outside the Tool: If you are manually typing in your executive summary and exceed 300 words, pressing the submit button will clear the text in the box. Write your executive summary in another program, then paste the text into the executive summary box.
- Click Add Partner/Line for Last Entry for Project Partners/Financials Tabs: Make sure you click “Add Partner” for the last partner on the Project Partners tab and “Add Line” for the last line of data on the Project Financials tab. If you do not, the tool will not include the contribution or request for that last entry.
- Ensure the Submit Button is Clicked: If a tab is complete with information, but does not show green on the indicators at the bottom, ensure you have clicked the submit button for the tab. Once you have successfully submitted each tab, you will be able to send the information to the RCPP team.
- NRCS is Here to Help: If you have any questions, contact the National Headquarters RCPP team at: RCPP@wdc.usda.gov. Or you can contact your states’ NRCS State Office, whose contact information is listed at the end of the Fiscal Year 2016 Announcement of Program Funding.

Thanks for your interest in forming diverse partnerships that leverage contributions to bring innovative solutions for on-the-ground conservation. We at NRCS look forward to working with you.

Beginning the Tool

When you open the excel spreadsheet for the first time, you may need to enable macros or editing.

To enable macros, click the “Enable Content” button located in the top middle of the Excel window, indicated the orange arrow.

Reopening a saved partially completed application

The screenshot shows the 'Overview' tab of the RCPP pre-proposal application tool. The interface includes a navigation bar at the top with tabs: Overview, Basic Project Info, Project Details, Executive Summary, Project Partners, Project Financials, Upload Map, and Upload Narrative. The main content area contains a welcome message, instructions for filling out the application, and a 'Next Tab' button. Below this, there is a section for loading a partially completed application, which includes a text input field, a 'Browse' button (indicated by a yellow arrow), and a 'Load File' button (indicated by a green arrow). A note explains that clicking 'Save Application' will create a text file for later loading. At the bottom, there is a row of buttons: Basic Info, Details, Summary, Partners, Financials, Upload Map, Narrative, Save Application, Previous Tab, Next Tab, and Submit Application.

Welcome to the RCPP pre-proposal application tool. Please have all relevant information, as outlined in the APF, ready for input since the program cannot save your information for a later date. Once begun, the application process must be completed or you will be forced to start over again. Each of the following tabs needs to be filled out before a submission can be made.

Simply fill out the data then click the "Submit" button on each tab (this insures the data is in the correct format). If the entry boxes turn grey, move on to the next tab. Once all boxes are grey (and submission boxes green) click "Submit Application" to submit your application.

If you use Microsoft Outlook as your default email client your application will automatically be sent in with no further steps. If you, on the other hand, prefer to use a different client such as Gmail, yahoo, etc. please follow the prompts to save the application file to a convenient location and attach it to an email along with a .jpeg image of your project and .pdf of your narrative as described in the APF (when using a different email client the map must be attached even though it was uploaded via this application). Please direct all questions and submissions via email clients other than Outlook to, RCPP@wdc.usda.gov.

Thank you,
The RCPP Staff

Teaching people about soil conservation is one of our top goals at the USDA's Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS), and fortunately, we have a special helper.

Sammy Soil, everyone's favorite little clump of earth, has managed to capture the public's attention for more than 40 years. The little dirt clod, as he is sometimes called, was birthed through rock particles, water, air, leaves and the artistic mind of long-time employee Ernest "Howard" Whitaker.

Sammy Soil started as a water color drawing by Whitaker, who worked as a NRCS district conservationist in Tennessee.

"The idea came to me in a dream," Whitaker said of the illustrated hero. The character of Sammy Soil was launched in 1967, at a time when soil conservation was not yet part of America's mindset, Whitaker said.

Before long, Sammy became a popular teaching tool for children. Whitaker's wife, Nell, a teacher, helped him polish Sammy's appearance for youngsters.

Sammy Soil was brought to the national level through a series of school activity books to help school children learn the many different aspects of soil conservation. For almost 50 years, Whitaker has seen his "son" Sammy evolve from a simple water color drawing, to a national symbol for soil and land conservation.

Completing the fillable PDF for the narratives

One required component of the preproposal application is the fillable PDF for narrative elements for the preproposal application. Follow these steps to complete the fillable PDF.

1. Open the PDF.
2. Enter the Project Name in the first box on the first page.
3. Select the appropriate funding pool from the dropdown menu.
4. Select the lead state from the dropdown menu.
5. Click in the box under the nine narrative elements. You can either type directly or paste in text. The PDF limits the response to 4700 characters for each element. The elements are listed below as well as in the Fiscal Year 2016 Announcement of Program Funding.
 1. Describe how each partner meets the eligibility criteria in Section II.A. of the Fiscal Year 2016 Announcement of Program Funding.
 2. Specify the geographic focus of the project area. This can be based on habitat type, land uses, political jurisdiction of State or local government, or any other appropriate method to identify the project area. Note that the project area does not need to be contiguous, but all areas should have a common primary resource concern that the project addresses.
